

Dotation for monitor

A donation of $950.00 was made last week to Steve Wald (second from right) owner of Wald Ambulance, to go toward the purchase of a third heart monitor unit. The money was raised at a co-sponsored pancake breakfast at the South Country Roundup. Left to right: Guy Cayer, representing the Assiniboia Co-op, George Young, representing the Wheat Pool Committee, Steve Wald receiving on behalf of Wald Ambulance, and Roger Rasmussen, President of the Credit Union, representing the Credit Union. A heart monitor will cost the company about over $20,000.
