

Steven Wald receives EMS Exemplary Service Medal

Steven Wald.

In a gala awards ceremony held Sunday, May 16, Alice Wald accepted the Governor General of Canada's Emergency Medical Services Exemplary Service Medal, which was award posthumously to her son Steven Wald. Her Honour Dr. Linda Haverstock presented the award.

The Governor General's EMS Exemplary Service Medal represents the accomplishments of Emergency Medical Services professional who have excelled in community relations, overcoming adversity, or just going that extra mile with their community or colleagues.

In addition to the medal, a certificate and two letters, one from Premier Lorne Calvert and one from Minister of Health John Nilson, were presented.

Steve Wald was a Paramedic and owner of Wald Ambulance for 20 years. Steve was the first Rural Paramedic in Saskatchewan.

Cont. on Page A3

Alice Wald (R) accepts the Governor General's Award from Her Honour Dr. Linda Haverstock.